DETAILED ACTION

1. This communication is in response to Applicant's amendment filed on 11/19/2009.
2. Claims 1-17, 33, and 34-45 are currently and have been examined.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claim 45 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to a non-statutory subject matter. Specifically the claims are directed towards an abstract idea.

Computer program not claimed as embodied in computer-readable media are descriptive material per se are not statutory because they are neither physical thing nor statutory processes. Claim 45 recites "a computer usable medium having computer readable program code embedded therein" which do not define any structural and functional interrelationships with a general purpose for permitting the claimed functions to be realized. In contrast, a statutory claim would define structural and functional interrelationships between data structures or functional parts and a computer which permit the data functions to be realized. Thus, claim 45 is rejected as being non-statutory as described above. Applicant is advised to amend claim 45 as follows: -- a non-transitory computer usable medium having computer readable program code embedded therein, when executed by a computer to--.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-17, 33, and 34-44 are in condition for allowance.
